2010 BUICK INVITATIONAL

Tom Wornham Elected President

Tom Wornham is Executive Vice President and Regional Manager of Wells Fargo Bank's Wholesale Banking Group. As area head, he manages middle-market relationship managers who serve companies in three Southern California counties: Imperial, San Diego, and Southern Riverside. Based in San Diego, he oversees a commercial banking region that provides loan, treasury management, and deposit products to companies with annual sales greater than $10 million.

Tom joined Wells Fargo in 1982 as a teller and trainee before becoming a credit analyst in 1983. In 1984 he attended the company's Credit Management Program. He was promoted to vice president of the San Diego Regional Commercial Banking Office in 1986, becoming loan team manager two years later. He became the first manager of the North County Loan Production Office in 1990. Tom returned to the commercial banking office as a manager in 1994, two years later he moved to Northern California as the regional vice president of the East Bay Regional Commercial Banking Office. In 1997, he was promoted to senior vice president. In 1999, he returned to San Diego to assume his current position and was promoted to executive vice president in 2003.

Tom earned his bachelor's degree in political science and international relations at the University of California, Berkeley. He later completed the Graduate School of Credit and Financial Management at Stanford University.

Active in many professional and community organizations, he serves on the board of directors of the San Diego Regional Economic Development Corporation of which he is the immediate past chairman, the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce, Century Club Board, and the San Diego Championship Golf Association. In May 2007, Mayor Jerry Sanders appointed Tom to the San Diego County Water Authority. He chaired the United Way/Chad Campaign for the 2001-2002 term.

JUST IN THE NICK OF TIME Nick Watney rallies from behind to win

Starting out the final round of the Buick Invitational five shots back from the leader, John Rollins, Nick Watney knew it was not going to be an easy day. But one of the lessons Watney learned from playing for his uncle at Fresno State was that winning a golf tournament is never easy. With only five holes left to play and behind three shots, he took heed of that advice and didn't give up.

"I just tried to keep my head down and give myself chances and I was able to make some putts."

First came the 40-foot birdie that worked its way down toward the 16th hole, sputtered slightly and fell into the cup. Then on the 72nd hole of the tournament, he sank a 3-foot birdie for the lead—the one and only time all week—and the win.

"If you're going to lead for one hole, this is the time to do it," Watney said with a wide grin. He finished 11-under 277.

Rollins, on the other hand, let this one get away. He knocked in a 20-foot eagle on the 13th hole to restore his three-strokes margin and appeared to have the tournament in hand. But he hit a poor chip that led to a bogey on the 14th, had a plugged lie in a bunker on the 16th that was so miserable he had to scramble to escape with a bogey, then pulled his second shot on the 18th into a bunker, missing a 12-foot birdie putt.

"It's unfortunate that I came in with a three-shot lead and couldn't get the victory," Rollins said. "But as I said yesterday, if somebody came out and played a great round of golf and came out on top, then my hat's off to him. And that's exactly what Nick did."
