HOLE-BY-HOLE
TORREY PINES NORTH COURSE

PAR 4-322 YARDS
This drivable par-4 is highlighted by two bunkers on the left side that challenge the tee shot. The green presents some putting, chipping immediately behind provides a beautiful backdrop to this playerbirdie.

HOLE 8 $\qquad$
The tee on the par-3 eighth is the highest point on the course and affords a wonderful view over the property. It features an inviting downhill elevation change to a contoured green that is shielded by either side.

HOLE 9 PAR5-556 YARDS
The outward nine concludes with a mid-length par-5 bordered by Torrey Pines trees and a bunker on the left in the landing area. The mall, rolling green is well protected by two cavernous bunkers on both sides. Play this hole smartly and be rewarded with a good opportunity or a birdie oreasy par

HOLE 10
PAR 5-536 YARDS

HOLE 1 PAR 4-412 YARDS
Open the round on the new North Course with a straightforward par-4 outlined by a bunker on the left-hand side and a large eucalyptus tree on the right. The expansive green is protected by front bunkers on either side.

HOLE 2
PAR 4-495 YARDS
Featuring rolling hills and exceptional length, the second hole is the longest par-4 on the golf course and plays into a prevailing wind. A canyon borders the entire left side of this hole, which features only one bunker. The split-level green provides an additional challenge for players who end up on the wrong tier

HOLE 3 PAR 3-241 YARDS
The first par-3 on the course directs players due west and provides substantial challenge for players of all skill levels. In addition to the significant length, a deep bunker guards this relatively small green perched neatly atop a small hill. Enjoy the stunning ocean and canyon views as you putt out.

PAR 4-479 YARDS
This par- 4 is one of the more breathtaking holes on the outward nine. It features a panoramic, ocean-backdrop view from the tee and borders the picturesque Torrey Pines State Reserve on the left. The synchronous combination of difficulty and aesthetics is accented by trees and a large, free-flowing Weiskopf signature bunker on the corner of this downeg-eft tee shot. Two more bunkers on either side of the large, semi-blind green make par a good score on this hole.
HOLE 5
PAR 5-525 YARDS
A birdie or eagle opportunity awaits players on the easiest and shortest of all par-5s on the North Course. On this slight dogleg-left that usually plays downwind, players will want to avoid the bunkers to the right in order to reach the green in two. The second shot is slightly uphill to a large, contoured green. Only one small greenside bunker on the left makes this hole attack-worthy, but pay attention to the pin location on this challenging, tiered green.

HOLE 6

PAR 4-416 YARDS
This short par-4 features a single bunker on the left-hand side of the fairway in the primary landing area. Another bunker protects the right side of a deep, narrow green that penalizes players either short with a false front or on the left due to the closely mown area.

The scenic back nine begins with a reachable par- 5 that will depend on a solid tee shot toward the ocean. Players must avoid another massive Weiskopf signature bunker on the right-hand side in order to reach the green in two The dramatic smallgren features a blind coffin bunker on the right side and a great view of the Pacific Ocean to the west.

HOLE 11 Three bowever are site tee box that appear to line the landing area Conservative approach from the tee advantageous.

HOLE 12 new tees on the canyon have expanded the yardages to over 200 yards from the eace entire left side and forces a significant carry from all tees to safely reach the green.

HOLE-BY-HOLE

TORREY PINES SOUTH COURSE

HOLE 13
PAR 4-459 YARDS
This demanding par-4 plays alongside the ravine on the left with a bunker on the right. Both should be avoided at all costs. The green is especially challenging because tt features a unique hog back running through the midale. The deceptive approach shot plays longerthan it Torey Pines State Reserve . Torrey Pines State Reserve.

HOLE 14 PAR 4-451 YARDS
The par-4 14th is another long, demanding hole that features beautiful ocean views from the slightly elevated tees. The challenge off the tee is to drive the ball between the eucalyptus trees on either side of the is due to the bunker located short of the green. It is one of course designer Tom Weiskopf's favorite holes.

HOLE 15 PAR3-202 YARDS
The par-3 signature hole at Torrey Pines North offers exceptional challenge and beauty in a postcard-worthy package. There are multiple lee locations to choose from that will provide a variety of dfferent looks for professionals and amateurs alike. Dramatic elevation off the ehen considering the strong ocean breeze. Don't forget your camera on this spectacular hole!

HOLE 16

PAR 4-393 YARDS
The gorgeous par-4 16th tasks players with driving the ball across a valley to a narrow fairway on a bluff hundreds of feet above the Pacif Ocean. The second shot is played uphill to a blind green, one club longer than the actual yardage. The old navigational marker framing view lies back down the fairway to the south looking at la Jolla Shores.

HOLE 17
PAR 5-520 YARDS
The par-5 17th is a newer hole for this golf course. It's a reachable par- 5 that plays roughly 520 yards from the back tees. Players must avoid the large eucalyptus tree on the left and two bunkers further dow sane side. intimidating canyon, making this an exciting risk-reward par 5

HOLE 18
PAR 4-486 YARDS
The trying home hole heads toward the clubhouse and boasts one of the longest par-4s on the golf course. The 18 th shares its teeing area With No. 14 , so any group on the box will have preference. The landing provide balare The complex ore is the la and is protected by three strategic bunkers. Welcome home!

The following is a suggested way to play each hole on the South Course at Torrey Pines from a PGA professional's perspective

HOLE 1

PAR 4-451 YARDS
You should try to favor the left side of the fairway on your tee shot which will give you the best angle of approach to the green. Into the prevailing wind, you also need to hit a big drive just to have a long iron into the green. Play your second shot to the middle back of the green for the most generous landing area. Ifyou can't reach the green in two then play up short to avoid the front bunkers, as they are very difficult to get it up and down from to save par

HOLE 2

PAR 4-389 YARDS
Off the tee you should aim toward the left side, as the fairway slopes from left to right. A good tee shot will leave you a shorter iron to the green. You should try to hit your second shot on the same level as the hole. Avoid the right bunker and hitting it long, as either will make it almost impossible to make a par. Hit your putt extra hard if going uphill, and tap it ever so gently going downhill.

HOLE 3

PAR 3-201 YARDS
Favor the center to the right of the green with your tee shot. Hitting it long, or left, is an automatic penalty. The prevailing wind usually offsets the elevation drop; so go with the yardage in club selection. If no wind, then take one less club. The green slopes left to right, so adjust your putting stroke accordingly.

HOLE 4
PAR 4-490 YARDS
This newly widened fairway gives players many options off the tee, Players who take on more of the cliffto the west will be rewarded with a generous slope that will favor the left side, but also augment a good tee shot, shortening the hole a bit. Even still, players need to hit it long off the tee just to have a chance to reach the green in two. The bunker on the left has been repositioned and downsized to make for a more interesting approach. Players now approach this green from either side. Be careful with a back-left pin position.
HOLE 5
PAR 4-454 YARDS
Your tee shot should favor the left side due to the fairway sloping left to right. On your second shot, you should avoid the right bunker and being long. The second shot always seems to play longer than it looks, so take a half of club, or a full club extra. Try to keep your second shot below the hole to avoid a severe slope in the front part of the green. Any putt above the hole will most likely run much past even with the slightest tap.
HOLE 6
PAR 5-564 YARDS
Long hitters can cut the corner and make the par 5 easily reachable in two shots. Big hitters must also aim right of the bunkers on the left side of the fairway, as they are reachable. Average hitters can aim at the bunkers at the end of the fairway without getting to them. Hit away on the second shot, as this green has one of the most generous approaches on the course. Average hitters may want to lay up 80-100 yards short for a full wedge shot. You should try to put your third shot on the same level as the hole, and avoid going long. There are lots of subtle breaks on this green, so pay close attention when lining up your putt.

HOLE-BY-HOLE
TORREY PINES SOUTH COURSE

HOLE-BY-HOLE
TORREY PINES SOUTH COURSE

HOLE 7 PAR 4-462 YARDS
You need a long drive on this hole, favoring the left side to have the best approach to the green. A tee shot to the right will result in the loss of at least one stroke to par because of the trees and lateral hazard. A layers will have to deal with the fairway bunkers each being moved plase whe the ceal whe she eff side of the green avoiding the very deep bunker on the right The slope of the green is deceiving, as there is more slope from the back to he front that it appears. Adjust your putting speed accordingly The chipping area on the left-hand side has been expanded.

HOLE 8
PAR 3-177 YARDS
Due to the fact that you cannot see the green surface from the tee, club selection on this par 3 is paramount. Go with the yardage, as the play is to aim to the right center of the treen, ast the shot. The safest bunkers are difficult to get your ball up and down for par The green multi-level, which make for many challenging putts.

HOLE 9
PAR 5-615 YARDS
You will want a long drive here, as several new features make this hole more challenging and fun. For most players, his s s a three-shot par 5 get the best angle to the green while avoiding the newly placed cross bunker at the approach. Long hitters must weigh their risk-reward options with both the front bunkering and new chipping area in the back of the green complex. Your third shot will play longer than the back of the green complex. Your third shot will play longer than the actual yardage, so take an extra club. Try to hit your third shot to the actual yardage, so take an extra club. Try to hit your third shot to the same level as the hole in order to have a reasonable putt at birdie. The green slopes from top to bottom more than it looks, so pay attention when lining up your putt.

HOLE 10 PAR 4-454 YARDS
A new tournament tee has been added to this relatively short par 4 . New placement of both the fairway and adjacent bunkers give players many more options off the tee. Play conservative and take a long iron or fairway wood to avoid the bunkers on either side or carry the bunker on This green is fairly small so putting your second shot in the middle of thernill

HOLE 11
PAR 3-225 YARDS
When selecting your club you want to take enough club to clear the ditch in front of the green. With the prevaling wind it will normally play one or two clubs longer than the yardage. The leff bunker is easier to from back to front making uphill putts slow and downill putts fast: nhill putts fast.

HOLE 12
PAR 4-505 YARDS
Hit your tee shot as hard as possible just to have a chance to reach the green with a long iron. Favor the left side of the fairway for the best groen. If to the have to lay. heasiest chip shot This green is flater than it looks so putts will not beas much at . mper. break as much as they appear

HOLE 13 PAR5-621 YARDS
Avoid the bunkers on the right side of the fairway off the tee, especially now that they have been brought closer to the fairway. For long tee shots, this par 5 hole is reachable in two. If you cant reach the green tho shos, use a mid tong in and aim toward the righ side of the lateral hazard into play The third shot plays a little longer than the tardage due to the change in elevation. The green slopes substantiall rom back to front so make adiusinents with the sped of your putt.

HOLE 14
PAR 4-437 YARDS
You will want to favor the right side of the fairway with a long tee shot to have the best approach to the green. You should place your second shot in the middle of the green, avoiding left and long, as that is an automatic penalty. Putting on this green is pretty much what you see is what you get

HOLE 15
PAR 4-517 YARDS
This is the most difficult driving hole on the course. You must place your ee shot in the right side of the fairway to avoid the tree row on the left and trees on the right. Being a two-tiered green, you need to use the ligh dub to get on the same level as the hole location on yoursecond shot. Uphill putts are very slow and downhill putts are very fast.

HOLE 16
PAR 3-227 YARDS
Club selection is paramount, as it normally plays one or two clubs longer than the yardage due to the prevailing wind. Aim your tee sho to the right center of the green. Avoid the bunkers on the left, as they are want to hit your puttaccordingly

HOLE 17
PAR 4-443 YARDS
The newly renovated 17 th is now more diabolical than ever with its fairway edging even closer to the canyon on the left side. With the natural hazard now more in play, the best placement for your drive is with a fairway wood to avoid the extended bunkers on the right The green is elevated to where you can't see the putting surface, so pay tention to the yardage The creen is split down the middle so try to place your second shot on the side of the hole location. The green has ots of undulations and is one of the toughest to putt Two puts are commendable here.

HOLE 18
PAR 5-570 YARDS
Try to split the fairway with your tee shots, staying in between the bunkers. From the back tees, this par 5 is a three-shot hole for most players. From the front tees it's reachable in two shots. For your second shot you need to select a club that will leave you 80-100 yards short of the green to avoid the lake, and to have a full sand wedge or wedge for your third shot. The green slopes from the back to front, as well as left to right on the right side of the green and right to left on the left side of the green. So, it is premium to place your third shot on the side of the hole location to have an easier putt.

WEDNESDAY HIGHLIGHTS

The Farmers Insurance Open teed off with its second consecutive Wednesday-to-Saturday schedule in 2023 and, per usual, the early leaderboard favored those playing the Torrey Pines' North Course. Sam Ryder, Aar Raind players held a share of the lead on TOUR after any round.

Ryder's 64 tied his best first-round score at any PGA TOUR event. He opened the tournament with an eagle on the par-5 10th hole and maintained a bogey-free scorecard while snatching three birdies on each side of the turn.

> "Great to start off with an eagle. Scorable conditions, drove it great, ironed it well, rolled a couple putts in," Ryder said. "It was pretty stress-free. It was fun. It's always nice to have that pressure, or whatever you want to call it, of being up near the top of the leaderboard. You take that over trying to chase cuts or being in the back. It's kind of a privilege to have that opportunity."

Rai and Grant, a PGA TOUR rookie, each notched career-low first rounds on the PGA TOUR. Rai also posted a clean round as he notched five of his eight birdies after the turn. Grant recorded nine birdies (five on the front nine) against one bogey 2022 Farmers Insurance Open champion Luke List (T12) opened his Torrey Pines title defense with a 5 -under 67 on the North Course.

PGA TOUR rookie Kyle Westmoreland scored his first PGA TOUR hole in-one on the par-3 16 th hole on the South Course ( 6 -iron from 201 yards) on the way to a 2 -under 70

THURSDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Sam Ryder posted five birdies - including a stretch of three in five holes on Nos. 10,13 and 14 -against one bogey to complete a 4 -underpar 68 on Torrey Pines' South Course and open up a three-shot lead, serd Ry's firt 36 helt 147 star served as Ryder's first 36 -hole lead in 147 starts on the PGA TOUR.
"It feels great. The thing I've been kind of telling myself is to just try and embrace it," Ryder said. "It's kind of why we play so just trying to look around and enjoy the moment. I'm jus doing everything pretty solid. Starts off the tee for me, I'm driving it well. My iron play is really good, so I feel like if I put it in the fairway, I can attack. And I don't think I really missed many shots today. This is one of my favorite courses on the planet. I've had a little bit of success here as a pro, so I always enjoy coming back here."

Southern California native Brendan Steele lurked in second place at 9 -under 135 following a second-round 70 on the South Course.
Making his 14th start on the PGA TOUR in his rookie year, Argentine Tano Goya tied for the second round's low score with a 5 -under 67 on the North Course placing him in third sond five whots 5 -under 7 -under 137.

Seventy-three players made the cut at even-par 144 and, under difficult, windy conditions, the South Course played to a Round 2 scoring average of 75.895 - nearly four strokes over par and more than three-and-a half shots harder than its Round 1 average.

FRIDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Jon Rahm, the 2017 Farmers Insurance Open champion, carded a 6 -under-par 66 on the South Course to pull into second place at 0 -undern her, in a bid to win his third consecutive PGA TOUR start.

Rahm blitzed the front nine of what he terms his favorite golf course, capturing birdies on holes $4,6,7$, and 8 , and the Spaniard reached the round's midpoint with an eagle on the par-5 ninth hole.
The day's low round went to Tony Finau's bogey-free 8 -under 64 that propelled him into third place at 8 -under 208. Sporting four top-10s in eight previous Farmers Insurance Open starts, Finau made the turn and immediately eagled hole No. 1 with a wedge from 138 yards out. tied for 116 th atter Round 1.

Said Rahm: "This is a wonderful golf course. Obviously suits my strengths and, I think, because I like it so much I've done very well here. Very few places where I feel like I'm in Spain and this is one of them. I was eight shots (back) starting the day did the job needed to do on the last, basically, 23 holes of the toumament, which has give meachance. Istayedrealy palienout and oor advantage of he holes courd take throughout the round I'm a very agoressive player by nature, nothing really changes. Ikind of stay true to whola"

Ryder maintained his first 54 -hole lead on TOUR in making par over his final 12 holes on the way to a round of even-par 70 .

SATURDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Max Homa, born in Burbank and raised in Valencia, is never shy to pledge his pride for California and his Californian sports fandom. On Saturday, he rallied from a five-shot deficit after 54 holes to post an Overal and earn his fourth PGA TOUP victory (ofsix overall in California

Homa tied for Saturday's low round in carding a 6 -under-par 66 on the South Course. Homa notched five of his seven birdies over the first 11 holes, then finished strong in adding his final birdies at Nos. 16 and 18 to cement a two-stroke win over runner-up Keegan Bradley, who also shot a 66 in Saturday's final round.
"It's nice to win up and down the state of California and carry that L.A. logo both on my head and in my heart" Homa said "I think about Kobe Bryant a lot. I think a loo of a thletes do. | actually thought about him a little bit throughout the day. This actually thought about him a little bit throughout the day. This is the golf tournament where we found out he had passed away tragically, so I have a weird feeling towards it.
"What I learned from Kobe Bryant's teachings and watching him, you know, work at his craft back in the day is he puts in all these hours behind the scenes so that when he's on camera doing his thing, he can just let it happen. So I try to take that with me and $\mid$ try to embrace the craziness and the pressure and all of that because that's what I saw him do and I was enamored by that."

Homa's fourth PGA TOUR win in the past 16 months vaulted him to No. Homa's fourth 13 in the Official World Golf Ranking He erned $$ 1,566,000$ winner's prize from a record $$ 8.7$ million purse.

Collin Morikawa, who played college golf with Homa at the University of California-Berkeley, was tied with Homa entering Round 4 and placed third - three shots back at 10 -under 278

Two things - rain and low scores - marked the first Open, and as it turns out they were brands for the San Diego Open. A torrential storm washed out Wednesday's practice round, and although few days were lost to weather, winter rains plagued the event for years. Ted Kroll Kroll opened with a 65 . It was the lowest score shot on the course in 25 years, and low scores would be a highlight of Opens to come. Playing under lift, clean and place rules, Kroll shot 276 to beat Jimmy Demaret by three shots. Former boxing champ, Joe Louis, played with PGA president Horton Smith as "an invited guest," despite African-American Bill Spiller's having qualified for the tournament only to be turned away at the first tee. That week the PGA board agreed to loosen its Caucasian-only restrictio slightly, and the Phoenix Open agreed to allow black players to compete ifthey qualified the following week.
